

	AGENDA ITEMS	FACILITATOR	NOTES
1	Welcome/Introductions	Chris Cook	Brandon Ching, Joe McGowan, Gian Aguirre, and Cristian Muresan were welcomed by Chris Cook.
2	Purpose of Coding advisory council <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. gain industry input to enhance Coding program b. mentor students c. provide internships d. provide entry-level employment e. donations 	Chris Cook	Powerpoint was shown that discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Examples of previous advisory council input b. the role of the advisory council
3	West-MEC school district overview <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Overview of West-MEC/START b. Overview of student programs 	Chris Cook	Powerpoint was shown that discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. CTE model b. West-MEC district overview (programs, campuses, adult education)
4	Overview of current Coding program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Languages currently taught b. examples of current student projects 	Pat Clawson	Powerpoint was shown that discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. languages taught PHP, Python, Javascript b. current student coding projects
5	How will you help shape the future coders? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. View curriculum map b. Simple project ideas for students 	Chris Cook Pat Clawson	Advisory council was broken into groups. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Brandon C./Cristian M. searched for possible student coding projects on Envato website. Made a list for Coding teacher. 2. Joe M/Gian A. reviewed current projects by previous advisory council member. They added new ideas/topics.
6	Next meeting <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. February 26, 2016 	Chris Cook	Chris informed the group that the next meeting will be 2/26/16.