

 West-MEC
General Construction Technology
Certification Information

Pathway to National Center for Construction Education and Research Certification:

- Testing Agency: National Center for Construction Education and Research (NCCER)
 - <http://www.nccer.org>
- West-MEC is currently seeking NCCER approval, upon being granted approval students who successfully complete the West-MEC General Construction Technology program will be eligible to test for certifications with NCCER
- No additional cost to students for certification tests

Pathway to Snap-On Certification:

- Testing Agency: Snap-On Certification, <http://www1.snapon.com/Education/Certifications>
- Testing Cost: None for West-MEC Students who complete certification through West-MEC
- Testing is offered through West-MEC Central Program
- Certifications can be earned in the following area(s):
 - Multimeter
 - Torque
 - Building Performance
 - Precision Measurement

Pathway to OSHA-10:

- Testing Agency: Occupational Safety & Health Administration, <https://www.osha.gov/dte/index.html>
- Testing Cost: None for West-MEC Students who complete certification through West-MEC
- Testing is offered through West-MEC Central Program.

Cost of certification or licensure testing fee(s) is the responsibility of the student.
Grants and scholarships may be available to assist with certification or licensure testing fee(s).

For further details regarding certification/licensure application, testing, and fees please contact:
Katie Mehin, West-MEC Career Liaison | Email: Katie.Mehin@west-mec.org | Office: 623-738-0057